To Whom This Concerns:

Please excuse the delay of this response, we have recently moved, (as noted in this form), but more important this filing fee of $550.00 got everyone confused and upset. Our accountant Ben Savy who so far hasn't missed a penny is very concerned. Myself and our secretary and treasurer ( my wife), all spent a week going through everything we have with this new company of ours and couldn't find any reference to an earlier billing that Ben Savy said should have come in the first of the year for $150.00 for the filing fee. Jan and I are intense in keeping records for fear of just this kind of item. This is our first company and we are determined not to fail. Ben Savy suggested that maybe because we were still under a year old in the first of this year that maybe the filing fee was possibly not sent. Therefor Ben said to immediately return the filing with at least the $150.00 knowing that you may accept it but be prepared to get $400 additional before the 13th of the month.

I am Air Borne Expressing this in hope that we can square this up before there is any other cost factor to us.

With respect

Stephen J Bennett
