Dear Dir. of Corporations:

My husband & I own D+E <sup>Development</sup> Corporation. It was incorporated in June, 1999. As this was our first time having a corporation I didn't realize it was to be applied for again in January. We did not get mail stating that this was to be reapplied for. I do understand that it was our responsibility to call you if we didn't receive it and I do apologize for this. In June we were out of town for 3 weeks & our mail was held at Post office. We have been having an enormous amount of trouble getting our mail. Some days I'll get the neighbors' mail & some days they get ours. We are not on a regular route. We do have a PO Box that we will use from now on.

Could you please restate our corporation and waive the large fee. We would be so appreciative & it won't happen again.

Any consideration will be appreciated.

Sincerely,

Ellen W. Lores
Secretary / VP
D+E Development
