Re: C.G.S. Masonry, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

We are the accountants for C.G.S. Masonry Inc. My office recently contacted the President, Mr. Vilroy Brown about his 2001 Corporate Annual Report. He then informed us that he has never come across such a document. We contacted your office, which confirmed that this Company was dissolved on 09/22/00.

We are respectfully requesting on Mr. Brown's behalf, that C.G.S. Masonry Inc. be brought back to good standing and that the late fees forgiven due to the following circumstances:

1. The officer of the corporation, Mr. Brown was not aware that he had to file an annual report since he has never seen such a report.
2. The corporation did not receive any notices, since the address on file is incorrect. The correct address is listed on the attached Annual Report.
3. The corporation right now is struggling to survive and the imposed penalties will be a financial burden.

Enclosed, please find the 2001 Uniform Business Report together with a check in the amount of $150.00. We would greatly appreciate you understanding our client's predicament and thus reinstate the corporation with no penalties.

Thank you for your kind understanding.

Sincerely,

James F. Faichney
