RE: Realty Network Services, Inc. corporation renewal fee

To whom it may concern:

Please accept my payment of $150.00 as full payment for my 2000 corporation renewal fee. I did not receive a notice from your department. I inquired about the form on 8/8/00 to be sent to me, only after a friend spoke with me last evening regarding the renewal form, and I expressed to him that I had never received the form. I was stunned at the thought I did not receive the notice, and that's when I was able to call the very next morning to your department.

As for my payment track record, this company I currently own is fairly new, it was established in 1999. Therefore, there isn't a payment history to benefit me. However, my track record for my past performance can be related to my past corporations. I owned Infinity One Realty, Inc, from 1989 through 1993 I believe. I also owned First Professional Processing, Inc. in the mid 1990's. If you check the companies, you will see that I paid in a timely fashion each and every year while they were in operation.

Please excuse the lateness at this time for my current company, as I mentioned earlier, I did not receive any correspondence from you department. As you can imagine there is so much to do on a day to day basis in running a business, that I did not think about the renewal. Truthfully, the renewal totally slipped my mind, since I was not given the renewal notice to remind me. Another point I would like to mention is, I am still in business, why would I want to pay more for something than I have to. Especially when the penalty is huge, from $150.00 to over $500.00. It doesn't make any good business sense.

I truly appreciate you taking this case under your consideration. I will make a note in my date book for the year 2001 to expect the renewal notice in January, and if I don't receive it, you can rest assure that I will call your department and inquire about it. I don't want this to ever happen again.

If you need to contact me, the best way would be on my cellular phone. 954-665-8208.

Thanking you in advance, I remain..

Sincerely,

Angela M. Martine
