RE: Doc #P99000054186

We have received your correspondence and the 2000 annual report that was sent back to us as the report was filed after May 1. Initially, we were totally unaware that an annual report needed to be filed as the corporation just began business in 1999. In addition, the mailing address of the corporation changed and the annual report for 2000, if one was sent, was never received.

Based on the above I am requesting a one time waiver of penalty which I understand to be $400 and am sending the $150 that was originally due. Being aware that the report is now due annually we will ensure that it is filed on time in the future. Please process the attached which will bring the corporation into full compliance.

Yours truly,

John Lively
