RE: Cooney, Inc
Document #P99000054323

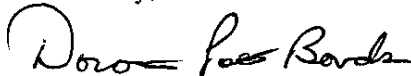

Enclosed you will find the Application for Reinstatement for the above referenced corporation, along with check #9366 for $158.75, a Fictitious Name Renewal and your letter dated February 7, 2004.

In talking with your office, they confirmed that you did receive and have had the ~~$550.00 which was required to reinstate the corporation back many months ago.~~ They also said that now you need an additional $350.00 because the Application for Reinstatement wasn't filed and to cover this years fee. The taxpayer was under the impression that once you received the required $550.00, months ago, everything was taken care of. When I received the Application for Reinstatement, several months ago and with no cover letter, I asked the taxpayer about it and they said that it was all taken care of. that you had the $550.00 and that was all that was needed.

The enclosed check is for the current 2004 fee of $150.00, plus $8.75 for a Certificate of Status for when this is all straightened out. We respectfully request that you rescind the additional $200.00 penalty due to the already explained misunderstanding about the $550.00 being all that you needed.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Potter Bonds

I am totally confused. I sent a letter several months back trying to figure out why my file was rejected.

This is the second letter stating I did not receive the copy of renewal for my Annual Report. All I want is to make sure I am being reinstated and what other fees if any I owe.

Hopefully you can help me in this matter. I am accompanying some of the past letter we sent:

Thanks for any help you can give me,
