Dear Tyrone:

Thank you very much for your assistance in this matter regarding Central Florida Landscape, Inc. 2002 Uniform Business Report. As I mentioned to you via telephone on January 28, 2003, I have recently received a 2003 Uniform Business Report in the mail. Upon its receipt I promptly reviewed my bank records as I recalled just having paid $550.00 to your organization on August 27, 2002. After thoroughly reading the 2003 Uniform Business Report I realized that I should only have been charged $150.00 to file for 2002, but that I was charged $550.00 due to having to pay an additional $400.00 late fee. My concern is that I did not receive the initial paperwork to file at this time last year. In fact, I did not receive anything until August and it stated a fee of $550.00. I paid it at that time not knowing I was being charged a late fee or that my report was past due.

Tyrone, I appreciate anything you can do to remedy this matter for me. I have been filing with the Division of Corporations for 5 years and have never had a problem before. I would accept a refund of the $400.00 I overpaid for my 2002 Uniform Business Report and will be happy to pay the $150.00 fee for my 2003 report at this time. It would also be acceptable to be refunded $250.00 and have both my 2002 and 2003 reports taken care of. Again, I do appreciate any assistance you can give me in this matter. I am not someone who typically writes letters of complaint but $400.00 is a large fee to pay for being late through no fault of my own. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

G. Kent Harman, President
Central Florida Landscape, Inc.
