ARTICLE XI - REGULATION OF BUSINESS

The following additional provisions are inserted for the management of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, and to create, define, limit, and regulate the powers of the corporation, and the shareholders:

A. If the By Laws of the corporation so provide, any meeting of the shareholders may be held either within or without the State of Florida and the books and records of the corporation may be kept at such place or places outside the State of Florida as may be designated, at any time, or from time to time, by the shareholders, unless otherwise provided by the laws of Florida.

B. No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its shareholders, or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its shareholders are directors or officers, or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because of such shareholder or shareholders are present at the meeting which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because his or their wishes are counted for such purpose if:

The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders which authorize, approve or ratify the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested shareholders; or

The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent; or

The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is authorized by the shareholders.

Such common or interested shareholders may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the shareholders which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction.

C. The Stock in the corporation is issued pursuant to the provisions of Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code.

D. In the event a certificate of stock is lost, stolen or destroyed, the corporation may issue a replacement certificate without requiring the surrender of the certificate for cancellation, provided that the shareholder in whose name the certificate was registered shall provide an affidavit setting forth the circumstances under which such certificate was lost, stolen or destroyed and provided said shareholders agrees in writing to indemnify and hold the corporation harmless from and against any and all claims, actions, and suits, whether groundless or otherwise and from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs, charges, counsel fees, and other expenses, of every nature and character, which the corporation at any time shall or may sustain or incur by reason of any claim or
