To the office of Div. Of Corporations,
Hello, my name is Paul Limonius and I'm writing this letter to you to ask for your mercy and understanding in my case concerning the notice of dissolution of Breeze Int'l. I formed Breeze Int'l last year, it's just me and it means a lot to me, I used a law firm that specialized in forming corporations, just so I could do everything correctly, and by the book, I'm not yet making any money with my company, in fact I still have my other job but things looked like they were gonna pick up soon if I could just hang in there a little. I'm by myself in this venture & it's a struggle to make ends meet, but I always pay my bills on time, & I don't bounce any checks. So when I got your notice about filing my annual business report, I made sure that I was gonna file on time I could'nt afford not to. So on April 25 I wrote my check and brought it along with the annual uniform report down to the law firms office, (for a yearly fee they provide that service) along with a few others. So after doing that I never gave it a second thought, believing everything to be in order, until today when I looked in my mailbox & read your notice. To be honest it really destroyed my day! I mean how could this happen! I did everything correctly, and it turns out that you folks did'nt get the check or the filed form. The law firm is saying they did everything correctly, and now poor me (literally) is being penalized! I'm just one little guy trying to make something happen in his life, I work real hard & I'm trying to do my best, but, good people I can't afford to pay a reinstatement fee like that! I just can't afford it and if I can't afford it then there goes what little dreams I had of making something of myself. Please try and have some mercy on my situation? Believe me, I did everything right on my part & the state say's it did'nt receive anything. I'm just one person and I beg you to please find it in your heart to accept my $150, I know you good people are so very, very busy And I'm so sorry for the inconvenience in asking for your help - Please ?? (I even enclosed a page of my check book just to show you that I really wrote you the check.)

Very Sincerely,
Paul Limonius / Breeze Int'l
