To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to submit the Uniform Business Report for AJA Industries, Inc. The form was just received in our office a few days ago declaring it was the second notice. However, we never received the original notice.

We are a very small business and have been a corporation for less than one year. We relocated our business December 1, 1999 and I thought I had made all of the address changes necessary but this mail did not get forwarded to our new address. I was unaware of the May 1 deadline of filing the UBR to maintain our corporation status. I have diligently filed all reports and have paid all fees on time and I would have done so had we received the first notice.

Please accept this filing with the necessary address changes and the original amount due of $150.00. This amount would have been paid had we been aware that it was due. If you need further information please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Joe Alvarado,
AJA Industries, Inc.
