To whom it may concern:

This letter is in response to the "Second Notice" of the 2000 Uniform Business Report we received on 7/7/00. We called the telephone number on the form immediately to inform the officials that this is technically our "first notice" since we never received the first one in January as the person on the other end of the phone informed us. She stated that we should write a formal letter, send the $150.00, and hope that you would comply. She also stated to let the officials know this is our first year as a corporation and possibly is the reason for the mix up as far as sending out the forms. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Carlos D. Cowart
