This letter is to let you know that we filed the 2000 annual report on time. It was until today that we found out that you never received the report with the check in the amount of $150.00. We knew it because as usually we sent the 2001 report, however, it was returned with a letter mentioning the that the corporation was dissolved because you never received the 2000 annual report. When we see the letter, we immediately checked our bank reconciliation and we found that in fact the check originally issued to Department of State was still outstanding in our bank reconciliation. For us it was difficult to determined that the check outstanding in the amount of $150.00 belonged to the Department of State because we usually write other checks with the same amount. We are a very small corporation with only one employee and it will be hard to send the amount you are requesting. We are respectfully asking to be considered our situation and be waive the $600.00 reinstatement fee. I am attaching check in the amount of $300.00 as requested by Mrs. Michelle Milligan for the year 2000 and 2001. We also want to let you know that we never received the dissolution letter sent to us. We believe that we never received anything because we moved. Our new address is shown above.

Respectfully yours,
