To Whom it may concern,

After filing for a corporation named Sterling Klinger Roofing, Inc. I received my packet from Tallahassee and were to apply for my Broward county license. I was told that to renew my license I must first change one word in my corporate name because we are primarily a inspection company and it must be changed to Sterling Klinger Services, Inc.

So I went to my attorney and they requested and received the proper forms from you to change the name. Everything was great until I got my corporate renewal packet and it had the old name, after my attorney called your office we were told not to worry because the change had just been made, it was not on the computer as of the mailing, and a new one would be sent with the new name.

One did arrive in the mail with the new name but it now said second notice and with a price not $ 150.00 but $ 550.00. After calling your help-line at (850) 488-9000, I was told to write down what we had discussed and to send this letter with the filled application and $ 150.00

Thank you for helping to solve this problem.

Sincerely,

Sterling C. Klinger III
President
