Re: Annual Report/Reinstatement

Due to a discrepancy in the address of this Company of both the principal office and the mailing address as you have them shown, the 2002 Corporate Annual Report was late in being forwarded to my correct address and subsequently late in returning to your Department.

Upon receipt of the same I returned the corrected report with the filing fees to Tallahassee. The check for the filing fees was negotiated by the State and when I saw the check clear my account I believed the updated application had been successfully received.

It was not until much later that the Notice of Dissolution, again mailed to the incorrect address, finally found it's way to me. In a subsequent phone call to your Department the breakdown was realized and I was instructed to submit this letter of explanation along with a corrected Reinstatement Form to have the dissolution reversed.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any thing additional.

Sincerely,

Paul A. Gren
