Re: Patterson Publishers
2003 Uniform Business Report
Change of Address

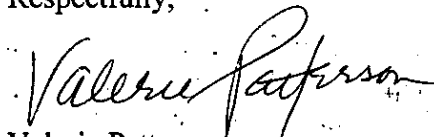

Dear Sir or Madam:

I received from the Division of Corporations what appears to be the second notice for the 2003 Uniform Business Report mandating a penalty fee. Please note that I never received the initial notice that would have been sent earlier in the year. My business mailing address had been changed since February 2003. However, proper U.S. Postal documents were filed at the Branch Office to transfer and forward all mail correspondence to my new number.

I was truly lead to believe that "all" mail would be forwarded and was very shocked to discover that this important dated material did not arrive. As proof I have attached a copy of the form mailed that bears the old address of P.O. Box 693422. As a small part time businessperson with revenues under $7,000 I find it extremely difficult to pay the penalty fee requested. However, I do regard my obligations and timeliness in payment debt and respectfully request your favorable consideration in accepting the $250 filing fee minus the penalty.

I would be forced to dissolve the corporation and refile because of my inability to pay this amount. I have enclosed a check for $250 and greatly appreciate your favorable consideration.

Respectfully,

Valerie Patterson
