To whom it may concern,

I am writing you concerning my payment on my UBR # P99000059113. I sent my payment to you in the envelope that came with the document. My check has never cleared the bank. I didn't think much of it until I received a follow up bill for $550.00. I called to ask if my payment had been received and she said no, she told me to put everything in writing and send another check, and the late fee could be waived. I am sending a new check and the copy I made of the original document. The original UBR & check number 1137, was mailed on the 26th of April and I remember this because the 26th of April is my son's birthday and it helps me remember to pay the UBR. I have placed a stop payment on the first check, so if you do find it and deposit it it will be returned to you. If you have any question or need to talk to me I can be reached at 813-655-3292.

Thank You

Diana Turner
