SUBJECT: 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR)

ENCL: A) 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR)
B) A check for $150.00

Gentlemen,

We just received the Second Notice for the subject report in which a penalty for late filing of $400 was applied.

We called your office and explained to the agent that answered that we never received the first notice or the original report. We use a CPA and we pay all taxes when due and file all forms promptly. We have never had a problem before with any taxing authority. Please believe us that we never received any of these reports.

Enclosed please find the properly completed and signed report and a check for $150.00 for this annual fee. In the future our CPA will see that, if we don't receive the initial form, that he will prepare one for us and we will remit it timely.

Another reason we might not have received this form was that we weren't incorporated until late in 1999.

We respectfully request that you forgive us the $400 penalty. Believe me, that penalty will be a real hardship on our small business. Thank you for your trouble and cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Carol S. Fouts
