Re: Corporation Reinstatement and
Request to waive Assessed penalties

Dear Officer:

Please be advised that Our company is having problems with the delivery of our mail, many important documents never get delivered due to this problem. One of our providers advised us that our company is administratively dissolved, therefore we called to your department and explained the situation.

As you requested we are writing to you to request to please to waive all penalties and fees assessed due to the above problem. Please find enclosed the Reinstatement Form together with the corresponding filing fees. To avoid future problems we are changing our mailing address to a different address from the business location.

Please reconsider your position and grant us the waiver of said penalties. Thank you in advances for your cooperation and consideration. Please do not hesitate to contact us at the above address if any further information is needed.

Sincerely yours,

Julyann Trullenque
President
