To whom it May Concern:

Although this notice states that this is the 'second' notice, it is in fact the first notice for payment I have received, and because this is the first year I am incorporated I assumed the payment of $150.00 was due one year from date of incorporation, which would be in August.

I immediately called my accountant who informed me that the payment is due in May, but because this is my first year incorporated, I should send a letter of explanation along with the check for $150.00, which is enclosed.

I am certainly aware now of the due date and will henceforth have payment in by the due date.

Thank you for your understanding.

Sincerely,

Anita Garnett
President
