ARTICLE XI

Each director and officer of the Corporation now or hereafter serving as such, shall be indemnified by the Corporation against any and all claims and liabilities to which he has or shall become subject by reason of serving or having served as such director or officer, or by reason of any action alleged to have been taken, omitted, or neglected by him as such director or officer; and the Corporation shall reimburse each such person for all legal expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability, provided, however, that no such person shall be indemnified against, or be reimbursed for any expense incurred in connection with, any claim or liability arising out of his own wilful misconduct or gross negligence.

The amount paid to any officer or director by way of indemnification shall not exceed his actual, reasonable, and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the matter involved.

The right of indemnification hereinabove provided for shall not be exclusive of any rights to which any director or officer of the Corporation may otherwise be entitled by law.

ARTICLE XII

The Bylaws of the Corporation shall be made, altered or rescinded by a majority vote of the Board of Directors; provided that notice thereof, which shall include the text of the Bylaws change, has been furnished in writing to each Director of the Corporation at least ten days prior to the meeting at which such alteration to the Bylaws is to be voted upon.
