Dear Sir or Madam:

I have just recently taken over the bookkeeping for Walach Industries. Unfortunately, the prior bookkeeper has left quite a mess to sort out. I have found the 2nd notice 2000 Uniform Business Report to file. At this time I cannot locate the original one that was sent. Walach Industries was under the impression that all of their bills were taken care of. I have found that this is not the case. It never was the intention of Walach Industries to not pay or file a late return, as they were unaware that this has occurred. I am enclosing a check for the $150.00 filing fee with hopes that you could waive the $400.00 late fee. Your understanding is greatly appreciated.

Thank You
