July 13, 2000

To whom it may concern;

Enclosed is a check for $150.00 for my annual fee. Yesterday, July 12, 2000 I received a "2000 Uniform Business Report" from you, and it said that I was late. I have never received anything like this before. I immediately called the phone number listed and asked some questions.

My business is just now a year old, and although I am growing, I am still VERY small. I do all of the paperwork and also all of the selling for my company. When I started this I tried to read everything that I received from all of the governmental identities that sent me things. I did not realize that I had to pay an annual fee as well as submit an annual report to continue my Corporation.

Please understand, and except my regular fee for this year. Now that I know about this annual fee I will have all future fees and forms to you before their original due dates. If you can not over look the late charge for this year, then I am hopeful that you will be able to take payments, for I am unable to come up with $ 550.00 at this moment.

Please let me know if you will except this (one time only), so that I do not worry.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Sincerely,

Marci Koziolk

Marci Koziolk
President
