necessarily incurred by such persons in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit, or proceeding which may be asserted against them, or any of them, by reasons of their being or having been directors, members, or officers, except in relation to matters as to which any such director, member or officer or person shall be adjudged in any action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for his own negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty. Such indemnification shall be in addition to any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaws, agreements or otherwise.

ARTICLE XII. LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR'S LIABILITY

A director of this corporation shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for money damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except to the extent such exemption from liability or limitation thereof is not permitted under the Florida General Corporation law. If the Florida General Corporation Law is amended after approval by the stockholders of this Article to authorize corporate action further eliminating or limiting the personal liability of directors, then the liability of a director of the corporation shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Florida or General Law, and as amended from time to time without further action by the stockholders.

Any repeal or modification of this Article shall not increase the personal liability of any director of this corporation for any act or occurrence taking place prior to such repeal or modification. The provisions of this Article shall not be deemed to limit or preclude indemnification of a director by the corporation for any liability of a director which has not been eliminated by the provisions of this Article.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Marc Collins has hereunto set his hand and seal on this 14th day of July, 1999.
