Division of Corporations Representative:

I recently received a "Second Notice" packet from the Division of Corporations. This information was sent to your office in March of this year with a check for $150.00. My records indicate that this check was received and deposited. A letter was sent to my office requesting additional information (the "D" for Director was not included on the original form). This letter was misplaced until a search of my records was conducted after receiving the second notice packet. My second notice packet was mailed to my old business location at 6465 1st Ave. South. I have made this correction to my business address on the enclosed form. Although this form is technically overdue, please consider the previous payment as fulfilling my obligation for this year as it was completed and mailed before the original due date. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
