To whom it may concern,

This letter is the first notice that my company has received requesting the $150 payment for the uniform business report. In addition, this request was mailed to the wrong address. Enclosed is the original envelope with the post office notification of incorrect address affixed to the outside of the envelope.

We are enclosing a check for $150. Hopefully your department can waive the penalty associated with a late payment in lieu of this situation.

Sincerely,

Brad Smith
President: Smith South Enterprises, Inc.
