RE: Notice of Administrative Dissolution of Carter Broadcasting Inc. (Document #P99000065721) and Request for Reinstatement

Hello...

It as come to my attention our corporation has been dissolved due to lack of filing the Business Report. I am writing this letter to ask for reinstatement due to hardship.

WSBZ Radio suffered a fire in the studio the evening of August 18, 2000... destroying everything... including all of our files. To make matters worse, the fire also destroyed our home.. which was adjacent to the radio station. We lost the business and a total of nine animals that night. My first knowledge of this matter came with the arrival of the Final Notice....that coming in September. I did notice the zip code on the letter was not the correct one for Santa Rosa Beach (32459 not 32549). While I am aware the deadline was September of 2000 for filing... it has taken me the last several months to repurchase broadcast equipment...and get the business up and running again. My wife and family of 6 kids still continue living in an RV and pop-up camper behind the transmitter site in a remote section of South Walton County.

Therefore....I am sending in a reconsideration fee for $150...and request the full reinstatement fee to be waived... due to hardship.

Sincerely,

Mark Carter
