Re: Patriot Transportation, Inc.

Dear Ms. Culligan:

In connection with your conversation with Steven Marshall of my office regarding the rejection of the Articles of Incorporation for Patriot Transportation, Inc., our client is aware that Patriot Transport Company is currently an active company in good standing with the Florida Department of State.

We hereby request that Patriot Transportation, Inc. be incorporated with the Florida Department of State.

Sincerely,

Katharine A. Breitmoser

H99000018238

ARTICLE XI - INDEMNIFICATION

A. The corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each person, his or her heirs, executors and administrators, who shall serve at anytime as a director or officer of the corporation or, at its request, of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, from and against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall have become subject by reason of his being or having heretofore or hereafter been a director or officer of the corporation, or of any other such corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of any action alleged to have been heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted by such person as such director or officer, such indemnification to be in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida as now in existence or as hereafter amended.

B. The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability.

C. The corporation, its directors, officers, employees and agents shall be fully protected in taking any action or making any payment under this Article XI or refusing to do so, in reliance upon the advice of counsel.

D. In addition to the foregoing provisions, this corporation shall indemnify each person or party described in paragraph A of this ARTICLE XI to the fullest extent permitted by Section 607.0850 (1998), Florida Statutes.

E. If any part of this Article XI shall be found in any proceeding to be invalid or ineffective, the remaining provisions shall not be affected.

ARTICLE XII - SELF DEALING

No contract, act or other transaction between the corporation and any other person, firm or corporation in the absence of fraud, shall be invalidated, vitiated or in any way affected by the fact that any one or more of the directors of the corporation is or are (i) a party or parties to or interested in such contract, act or transaction or (ii) interested in or a director or officer or directors or officers of such other corporation. Any director or directors, individually or jointly, may, in the absence of fraud, be a party or parties to or may be interested in any contract, act or transaction of this corporation or in which this corporation is interested. Each and every person who may become a director of this corporation is hereby relieved, in the absence of fraud, from any obligation to account for profits and from all other liability which might otherwise arise by reason of contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or any other person or any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in any way interested or in which he may be an officer or director. The foregoing provisions shall be applicable notwithstanding that the director or directors referred to shall have voted for or shall have been necessary to authorize the contract, act or transaction in question, or that he or they shall have been present or necessary to constitute a quorum at the meeting which authorized such contract, act or transaction.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation, as its Incorporator, this 23rd day of July, 1999.
