To whom it may concern:

I received this letter from your office dated 11/16/2000 that you had not received our correspondence in May as to the status of our corporation. Our paperwork was filed on time and the check was cashed. I am returning the copy sent to us and hope this will take care of the situation. I spoke to your representative and she told me it was because you had not received the correspondence back within the 30 days. This was sent back and now I am sending it again. Please take care of this matter right away.

Sincerely,

Carole A. Ferrill,
President
