Re: Reinstatement of Corporate Status
Eric L. Lambert, Inc.

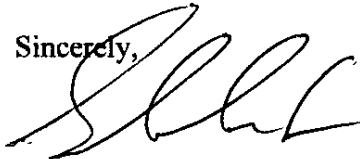

Dear Department of State Representative,

Pursuant to my conversation this morning with your representative Tyrone, please find a completed Corporation Reinstatement Form pertaining to the above listed corporation. In speaking with your representative, I notified him the effective address for this entity had changed in August 2000 and that neither it nor its counsel had received any notifications from the Department of State indicating that corporate filings had not been made for this entity.

Your representative requested that I complete the attached form, that I write a letter describing the issues of change of address and no notification being received from the state, a request for penalties to be waived and a check in the amount of $900.00 be sent to the state to bring this entity current with the Division of Corporations. Accordingly, at your earliest possible convenience, I would request that you honor the aforementioned and reinstate this entity.

Should any of your representatives have any questions with the attached or the above stated, please do not hesitate to contact me at (954) 610-1591.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Eric L. Lambert', written over the word 'Sincerely,'.

Eric L. Lambert
