Annual Report 2000

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that along with this letter a new Annual Report is being filed for this corporation in reference, BEST TRADING INTERNATIONAL, CORP.

The shareholders of this corporation are foreign individuals who live in Venezuela, and they have nobody to take care of the everyday administrative duties. A fully processed annual report was sent to their mail address and never reached its destination; therefore they did not pay in a timely manner. Furthermore, since their corporation is fairly new they were not aware that this report is customary every year and they did not inquire when did not received any document during the time frame allowed for this purpose.

In processing the accounting for the year 2000, we found-that a check was never written to pay this report and they showed me the new bill received from the Department of State for not having filed yet.

Considering all these facts I am respectfully requesting that this penalty would be waived for this time only, since the circumstances were beyond their control. Enclosed please find copy of the previous report that we keep in our files, along with the check covering this liability.

We appreciate your help on this matter. Please feel free to contact us at your convenience.
