RE: FIN 59-3596503

Document Number: P99000071059

To Whom It May Concern:

I am requesting that you waive the late fees for the filing fees of my corporation.

I filed Chapter 7 bankruptcy this year. The results are still pending. As I regretfully had to focus on this legal issue, I certainly did not notice that the filing fees were due.

When I received this notice, I went through my mail to find the original notice. The Notice of Intent to Dissolve was only postcard size. A document of this size would be easy to misplace. However, I looked for a document the size of the Notice of Intent to Dissolve. I did not find such a document. Therefore, since I want to give my corporation a second chance for success, I have to believe I did not receive the first notice. If I did receive the first notice, I would have paid the fee.

I do hope you will vote favorably to help me stay in business. As I am still in the bankruptcy process, I certainly cannot afford nor justify a fee of $550.

Thank you for your support and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Vickie L. Haberbosch
President
