To whom it may concern:

We received the 2000 business report sometime in July stating that it was our second notice. It also stated that due to that speculation, we owed $550.00. This, as you might guess came much to our dismay, largely due to the fact that we had not received a first notice.

With this confusion at hand and the horror of paying $550.00, we called the number offered for assistance located on the back of the report. Upon doing so, a very nice young lady informed us that such a snafu was not terribly uncommon. She then instructed us to send a check for $150.00 to this address rather than the original, with a letter explaining how we unfortunately had not received the first notice.

Thank you very much for your help and cooperation, and allow us to commend the young lady we spoke to on the phone, for all her compassion and understanding.

Sincerely,

INDIAN RIVER LILY COMPANY
