To Whom it May Concern:

Recently I received the enclosed 2000 Uniform Business Report. I needed to consult the person who set up the corporation and mentioned that I thought the filing charge was very high. I was informed that this was the second form and a penalty was imposed because the first form was not filed. I did not receive a "first" form so called the 800 number (850-488-9000) to explain that situation. A gentleman there said to write a letter of explanation with the form and payment. I asked him to reflect my phone call on our file.

Our corporation was formed in the latter months of 1999 so possibly the first paperwork was not sent because of that.

Enclosed please find the completed 2000 Uniform Business Report, the check for $150.00 as the full payment, and my letter of explanation. I don't feel we should be penalized because the first paperwork was not sent, or at least not received by us. Please review your records and accept this explanation and payment.

Sincerely,
Jane T. Backus
