SECOND REQUEST

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of my client as reference above. There seems to be a misunderstanding regarding information missing on the renewal of his corporation. You state on your November 29, 2000 letter that the reason why my client's corporation was dissolved was because he failed to submit his 2000 corporate annual report/UBR form on a timely manner. Please be advised that my client did comply with the requirements to renew his corporation and sent his fees on a timely manner—the check was cashed! As a matter of fact, my records show that he sent his report with a check on January 5, 2000, that's 4 months before it's due. The only piece of information that was missing was his FEI number, which he has had since he opened his corporation.

At this time, I respectfully request that my client's corporation to be reinstated. His FEI number is listed above. Also, along with this letter, please find his 2001 UBR form properly completed with a check in the amount of $150.00. I trust that this situation will be cleared soon.

If you should have a question, please feel free to contact me at (305) 825-4777.

Thank you kindly,
