Division of Corporations
Annual Reports Filings

Dear Division of Corporations,
Shawn Stipich, Inc.
FEIN #59-3592216

Type Tax: 2000 Profit Annual Corporate Report

Second Respose

I recently got back from a letter from the Department of State stating that it was unable to waive the late fee based on my previous letter. I feel that my first request my not have included all the details that should have been told. I feel that my actions and circumstances "demonstrated that I exercised ordinary care and prudence." Please bear this in mind to waive to late fees.

In 1999 I had a unpredictable year. The first part of the year I lived in another state and lived out of a hotel. I just started in business and was scraping by to make ends meat. Then, I was re-located to Florida. I began to work in Florida in the middle of 1999 while traveling every week for about 5 days per week. It was during that time that I incorporated. I started to business as a corporation. Then, things went very wrong. I lost my work contract. I was out of work from 11/1/99 to 7/1/00. During this time I was traveling constantly out of state in search for employment. I had zero income coming in. I had no way to pay bills.

In organizing my business affairs after I returned home I came across my 2000 Profit Corporation Annual Report. The form was completed, signed and a check for $150 was attached. The problem is that I just got back and did not mail it out. My business affairs out of the state were mis-scheduled and therefore, I was unable to make it home until middle July. I found the report and went to mail it out. I read the report and learned the filing fee increase to $550 if it was mailed after May 1, 2000. Upon learning this I immediately called the Department of State (July 2000) to ask for a remedy. The person at the Department of State explained to me that I needed to write a letter explaining the unforeseen circumstances. The person said to enclose this letter along with a check for $150.00 and mail it in as soon as possible.

I am making an earnest effort to properly comply with the filing requirements. I apologize for the late filing and request that you accept my filing. This was the first year doing business as a corporation. I believe my actions demonstrated that I exercised ordinary care and prudence. According to 12--13.007 Grounds for Reasonable Cause for Compromise of Penalties (B), I believe the facts in my circumstance reflect the fact that I demonstrated reasonable care with my limited experience with Florida tax matters.

I request the Division of Corporations to consider a penalty reduction request. I request that I pay the $150 filing fee for 2000. I would greatly appreciate your understanding. Hence forth, I promise to properly comply to all Division of Corporations rules and regulations. I am enclosing a check for the $150 filing fee. Thanks again for your understanding. Thank you very much,

Shawn Stipich, Inc.
