FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently was applying for a loan and was told by my lender that when they looked up my company to verify my income they found that my Corporation was dissolved in 2000. I was shocked. So I called your office and was advised by a nice woman named Kathy to write a letter to explain that I had never received anything saying I owed any fees. In September 1999 I thought I had notified all appropriate agencies that I had found a store front and would be changing my address. My P.O. Box was # 211448 Royal Palm Beach, FL 33421, and my physical address was 1209 the 12th Fairway, Wellington, FL 33414. I apologize for this. I honestly did not know I owed any fees. I received all documents from IRS, Florida Department of Revenue (Sales tax, UCT-6, 941, etc.). I am hoping you will understand I never received notice of any fees due. Therefore because I was still receiving my tax certificates and tax forms, I was never aware of any problem. I sincerely plead with you to waive the reinstatement fee, and accept this check for $450.00 for the fees accumulated since 2000. I sincerely apologize, and hope you will understand I am not in the financial position to pay the reinstatement fee since business has been so slow. I am doing my best to keep my business open. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jeri Belta Scheckner
