To Whom It May Concern:

I received the 2001 Uniform Business Report Last week. Upon filling it out I noticed it said I was late sending it in and that I owed $550.00. Upon contacting my Accountant he informed me that I was supposed to get this in January or somewhere around that time. I never received this prior to last week.

I called the number at the bottom of the report and they informed me to send a check for $150.00 and this letter informing you that the January report was never sent to me. I am quite positive of this since I am the only person that can get the mail for my office. Due to the fact that I am the owner of the company, I assure you, I would know if this was received.

I would appreciate it if you would accept my check for $150.00 for the original report that was not sent and note the new address changes as well.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Leslie Saul
