Re: A Step Above Carpet and Upholstery Cleaning, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find the UBR form for the year 2001. I never received the one for the year 2000 and so, I thought it was included when I incorporated shortly before that. Everyone, including the Division of Corporations told me that it would arrive in the mail before it was due.

I apologize for the lateness of the 2000 return. We have all intentions of complying with all rules of the State. We didn't do anything with the corporation until 2000 except open a bank account and try to buy equipment.

Please give us every consideration with respect to fees. We were just starting out (I am 23 yrs old) and we really did call to find out what we were supposed to do. The lady on the phone said the form (and I thought she called it an annual form not a UBR) would come in the mail before it was due. As you can see, it still has not come so I had to change this year's UBR to file last year's information. I have enclosed my check for the two years.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Daniel DeRogatis
