RE: 2001 UNIFORM BUSINESS REPORT
REINSTATEMENT - V-8 Realty, Incorporated

Dear Sirs:

Pursuant to my secretary's discussion with your offices, enclosed please find the 2001 Uniform Business Report for the above referenced corporation. Upon searching the records we discovered that V-8 Realty, Incorporated had been improperly dissolved. Pursuant to our telephone conversation with your Department, the following is an explanation of the events which led to the improper dissolution of this corporation:

Last year our client did not receive the Uniform Business Report in the mail. Therefore a blank form was filled out, signed, and returned on April 24, 2000, via overnight mail, along with a check in the amount of $150.00 (please see enclosed copies). On May 5th your office returned a copy of the Report because the Registered Agent had not been filled in. The correction was made and returned to your offices on May 17, 2000, via certified mail. A copy of your department's letter of 5/5/00, the corrected form, and the signed certified mail receipt is enclosed for your convenience. Obviously after the corrected 2000 Report arrived in your offices it was either set aside or misplaced and the information was never entered.

Please reinstate this corporate to good standing as soon as possible and accept the Uniform Business Report for 2001.
