I have made the correction to the word "INITIAL", In the election of a Vice President.
In addition I have made a name change to the corporation which is replacing the original intended name change.

When we initially sent the information in to have the name changed your office sent this paperwork back due to a typographical error. This allowed us the opportunity to further research the direction of the corporation. At this time we have elected to change the name of the corporation to:

Florida Insurance Benefits, Inc.
