To Whom It May Concern:

I just realized, after speaking with my new accountant, that my former accountant did not prepare my annual report for filing and consequently the report did not get filed and I am now subject to a $400.00 fine. After calling the Division of Corporations, they informed me that I should write a letter and explain the circumstances. Because of continued tardiness be my accountant in regards to my tax matters, she was let go. I apologize for this problem and ask for any relief you could provide vis-a-vie this penalty as I am a fairly new corporation that is trying to establish myself. Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Richard D'Andrade', with a stylized flourish at the end.
