Dear Sir or Madam,

I spoke with your customer service personnel today (850-487-6059, option 2), regarding the attached forms.

We appear to have had a problem filing our form electronically, and the sequence of events is below:

3/19/01: I signed the form intending to mail it in, then noticed I could file electronically.

4/30/01: I filed the report electronically, recalling that I was meant to check back in 24 hours, but I forgot to do so.

6/1/01: I received my credit card statement, and found no charge for $150.00. At this point I went on-line, to find the form didn't take (the last filing shows 5/26/00), and immediately called in to find out what I should do.

Admittedly last year, we were late with our form, as it was our first year as a corporation, and we learned hard in the pocket book what filing late cost us, so this year I made a point of doing it on time (even though it was the last day). I filed electronically assuming that all was correct and had been received by you OK, and don't know what happened. I used the document number and the access code given to me. As a small home based business, I certainly would not have made the same late filing mistake again!

The lady I spoke with today, said I should send in the $150.00 along with this explanation letter.

Regards,

 6/1/01
Caroline R. Macatugob, President
