RE: Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation

Dear Division of Corporations:

Our law firm recently received a Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation for not paying an annual fee. My partner and myself can't recall ever receiving the original statement. In fact, there are other businesses on our floor that never saw their original statement either.

I spoke to an employee at the Division of Corporations Annual Report/Reinstatement Section today. She informed that even if I did not receive the original statement, I was still under an obligation to mail in a payment of $150.00. This is the first year our law firm has been in operation, however, and we didn't know about this. We're still confused about when we are required to pay and how often.

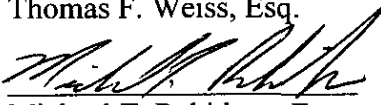

The employee also told me that I could send in the original payment of $150.00 and request a waiver of the penalties. So, I am requesting a waiver because I cannot remember receiving the original statement and since this is our first year in operation, we were not aware that we were required to send in a payment on a certain date.

For the above reasons, I am respectfully requesting a waiver of the penalty charges. I am also sending the original amount of $150.00. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Thomas F. Weiss, Esq.

Michael T. Rabideau, Esq.
