Subject: 2003 Uniform Business Report (UBR)

To whom it may concern:

I'm writing this letter in hopes that I might be able to have the UBR late fee waived to Emerald Coast School of Real Estate.

Emerald Coast School of Real Estate operates five stores in Florida with locations in Shalimar, Pensacola, Panama City, Tampa, Clearwater. Each location has one employee each. Our home office where book work is taken care of is in Shalimar. The UBR for the school has not arrived in the mail.

Our bad luck began April 13th when we lost an employee in Clearwater. Another employee's husband in Panama City had a heart attack and we lost her. An instructor in Panama City also had a heart attack. Back in Clearwater the new girl we just hired decided the job was not for her and she quit forcing me back there to hire and train someone else. Then the new girl in Panama City left us for stealing from us and is now on the run. Forcing me back to Panama City. All offices are manned now but required training still go's on.

I was finally able to look at our late bills after the 1st of May and I discovered we had over looked the filing date on the UBR on May 14th. I have gone through all my mail and still I am unable to find our UBR. I called the Florida Department Of State Division Of Corporations and was directed to write this letter and send in my check. I have enclosed the electronic file P99000077980-051503104852.pdf version of our form downloaded from your web site with the $150.00 check. I feel the events of the last 5 weeks are extraordinary for our company and hope we can be waived for the $400.00 late fee.

If you have any other questions or if I can be of help please don't hesitate to call me.

Sincerely yours,
Edward Sullivan, VSD
