Dear Department of Uniform Business Reports:

On August 3, 2000 I received a notice from your office requesting $550.00 payment for Uniform Business Report. This notice concerned me therefore I spoke with my accountant and learned that I should have received a notice in January and payment of $150.00 should have been paid by May 1. Unfortunately this our first time owning a corporation and everything that I receive I respond immediately. I never received any information from your office before August 3, 2000; I am enclosing the $150.00 that is required and asking your office to waive the $400.00 penalty. I assure you we would not risk the dissolution of our corporation for $150.00, had we received notification in January.

With Good Intentions,

Judith Harris, Vice President
