This letter is written in response to the attached letter regarding my corporation, Eleganza Architectural Interiors, Inc., P99000079481. The attached letter indicates that my annual report has not been filed. I initially received the report, filed it out, signed it and believed that my attorney had handled it. Then in mid June, I discovered that it had not been filed. I immediately forwarded the annual report and the required payment to the Department of State. It was filed late only because of a misunderstanding between my attorney and myself.

I respectfully request a waiver of the penalty for the late filing and ask the Department of State to file my previously filed return.

Sincerely,

Tina Anastasia
President
