Dear Sir or Madam:

We are submitting the application with the regular $150. I spoke with your offices today and explained that we never received your letters. The only one we received was the dissolution one, so we hope that you understand that since we were not informed that you could accept our $150 fee. We are a very small company and haven't been able to contract for about a year now. But we have applied for minority status and have been accepted. So we hope to do some contract work for the county and possibly the state in construction. If you could please answer back and let us know, we would appreciate it greatly.

Sincerely,

Juan Luis Mecias
