Dear Ms. Eckel:

As per our conversation of October 12, 2000, wherein you advised that I draft a letter explaining the circumstances surrounding our failure to respond to the request for the 2000 U.B.R. form, I am submitting this letter to the Division of Corporations.

As I had explained to you, we never received the initial request for the U.B.R. The first piece of correspondence we received from the Division of Corporations was the second request with charges of $550.00 or $650.00 if filed after September 13, 2000. The exact date of receipt of this letter I am not certain of, but can tell you that it was not timely enough to be filed by the 13th of September.

I contacted the Division of Corporations by telephone explaining the situation and was advised by Megan at the U.B.R.'s help line to send a letter explaining what had taken place along with a check for $150.00, which would cover the amount for the original filing. I did just as I was instructed and have now received a letter of dissolution.

Again, please find the completed form as you have requested along with a check in the amount of $150.00 so that my company's corporate status can be re-instated.

I sincerely thank you for all you have done to help me with regard to this matter. Should you have need to further contact me, you can do so at 954-704-4202.

Sincerely,

Lisa Haboian Morel
