To Whom It May Concern,

I recently received the 2000 Uniform Business Report application. Since I have never seen one of these I called my accountant to inquire about this form. She explained to me that I should have received one of these forms back at the beginning of the year. I can truly and honestly say that I never received the original form.

The purpose of this letter is to see if we can submit the original $150 which I have enclosed instead of the $550 required with this second notice.

We are a new small business and this would have been our first filling. We had no idea we were supposed to receive and send back this form before May 1, 2000.

I do not feel we should be penalized for somebody else's mistake (US Mail).

Sincerely Yours,

Jorge Hernandez
