Re: Mario A. Arnero Consulting, Inc.

Gentlemen/Ladies:

We are the accountants for the above-named corporation and have been asked to make this request.

We are formally asking for the abatement of the $400.00 late fee, imposed on the filing of the 2001 Uniform Business Report (UBR) after 5/1/01. This is the first time that our client needed to file this Form as they are a new corporation. When the taxpayer originally received the UBR, they were unsure what to do, so they sent it to our office in New York. We sent it back to them with the instructions regarding the filing of this Form. Unfortunately, the Form and instructions were misplaced and not filed timely. Only after receiving the current UBR which is being filed now, did we determine that the Form was not timely filed.

The taxpayer now understands its responsibility in filing this form. Due to the fact that this is a new corporation, which has a perfect record in filing all of its Federal and Florida tax forms, we respectfully request that you accept the $150.00 fee enclosed herewith in full payment of the filing of the 2001 UBR, and abate the $400.00 penalty.

Very truly yours,

Marvin A. Weinstein
